

Brian Carter

Advisor Atlanta

Professional Experience

Brian Carter, Advisor, focuses on occupier representation for office and industrial tenants and owners. As a key member of our Atlanta office, Brian advises clients throughout the United States on real estate strategies to help them achieve their corporate objectives.

Brian attended the University of Georgia from 2009-2013, where he was a member of the UGA Men's Golf Team. After graduation, Brian went on to become a Private Wealth Advisor, holding roles at both Raymond James & Associates and Pierson Wealth Management. In 2019, Brian left the financial advisory industry to pursue a career as a professional golfer.

Through all of Brian's career paths, he has proven to be a results-oriented professional. Brian's main objective in commercial real estate is to help companies make smarter real estate decisions with a steadfast dedication to only representing tenants – never landlords.
