

Kaleigh Schlosser

Vice President
Atlanta

Professional Experience

Kaleigh Schlosser specializes in supply chain solutions on CRESA Atlanta’s Industrial team. Leveraging a decade of experience representing landlords in dispositions, leasing, and private equity investing, she offers a holistic perspective during negotiations.

Before joining CRESA, Kaleigh worked on the Capital Markets team at Cushman & Wakefield in Washington, DC, where she played a pivotal role in the successful execution of transactions totaling $3.2 billion. While at CBRE, Kaleigh represented 7.5 million square feet of commercial properties for landlords such as Jamestown and Skanska. Starting in the real estate industry as an administrative assistant, her track record includes over 100 transactions, and she has been recognized as one of the New Power Women of Real Estate.

Kaleigh resides in Atlanta with her husband and daughter. She is an alumna of The Lovett School and graduated with honors from the University of South Carolina
