

Morgan Cochran

Marketing Manager
Atlanta

Professional Experience

Before joining Cresa Atlanta, Morgan worked at a marketing agency working with a variety of clients in the healthcare, nonprofit, automotive, and law industries. During her time at Samford University, Morgan was elected to lead Samford's National Student Advertising Campaign for a major U.S. corporation, and served as the Vice President of Samford's Public Relations Student Society of America. Morgan was also chosen as Samford's top student in advertising, winning an award for her outstanding achievements before graduation. At Cresa, Morgan is responsible for developing and executing marketing plans, serving as a liaison between Cresa's national marketing department and Cresa's Atlanta office.

Education

B.A., Journalism and Mass Communication, Samford University

Contact

404.446.1591 office
404.386.9383 mobile
mcochran@cresa.com