

Tom Tindall

Managing Principal Atlanta

Professional Experience

Tom Tindall, co-founding Principal of Cresa Atlanta, began his real estate career in 1985. He spent the early part of his career with Rubloff, a corporate real estate company based in Chicago, where he specialized in the evaluation and analysis of office and industrial space requirements and represented tenants in renewals, expansions and relocations. After a career with Rubloff, Tom joined The Sharp Boylston Companies in 1993 to further his specialization in tenant and corporate representation. Tom was consistently honored for outstanding achievement, having been recognized as one of the firm's "Top Five Producers" in 1994, 1995, and 1996 and named as a Principal of the firm in 1996.

In June 1998, Tom became a Principal/Co-Founder of Cresa Global, Inc. His skills sets focus heavily on Strategic Planning, Financial Analysis, Negotiation Strategy, Global Corporate Services, and Transaction Management. Through his successful career, Tom has obtained the acknowledgments, experience and affiliations working with clients such as:
