

Scott R. Wingrat

Principal
Baltimore, MD

Professional Experience

Scott Wingrat, Principal and founding member of Cresa's Baltimore office, provides an array of comprehensive strategic real estate services to clients in a wide range of industries. His extensive experience in the sale and leasing of office, flex and industrial properties enables him to successfully assist clients make informed real estate decisions that translate into executable strategies for reduction of occupancy costs and increased efficiency.

Education

Scott attended The Park School of Baltimore and received his Bachelors of Science degree in Economics from Elon University.

Contact

410.558.6192 office
swingrat@cresa.com