

Justin Barker

Senior Advisor

Professional Experience

Justin is a strategic advisor to corporate occupiers. Beyond solving operational needs, he drives his clients' profitability and workforce productivity while serving as an unbiased advocate for their best interests.

Prior to Cresa, Justin was a business development manager at the National Apartment Association, increasing annual Lease Program revenue by 18% implementing analytic strategies. Most recently, Justin generated $6M+ in revenue for Precon Events by servicing large corporate, government, and nonprofit clients.

Affiliations

As a member of the Urban Land Institute, Justin enjoys access to the oldest and largest network of cross-disciplinary real estate and land use experts in the world.

Education

Justin holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from Wheeling Jesuit University in Wheeling, West Virginia.

Contact

301.798.6212 office
301.461.2932 mobile
jbarker@cresa.com