

Lauren H. Berkey, LEED AP

Vice President, Corporate Solutions

Professional Experience

Lauren is responsible for advising global corporate accounts including transaction management, portfolio management, and strategy. Since 2006, Lauren has completed transactions including: regional consolidations, headquarters, contract-contingent requirements, sales/subleases, build to suits, and national site selection including economic incentives. Lauren's experience with corporate accounts spans a variety of asset types including office, industrial, manufacturing, and lab space.

Clients

- L3 Technologies, Inc.
- The American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy
- International Foodservice Distributors Association
- PAE (former)
- BAE Systems North America (former)

Affiliations

Lauren has been named a Cresa Top Producer in 2017, 2016, 2015, and 2014. She was named amongst 45 of the most powerful and prominent female executives and amongst 20 young female professionals nationally who have potential to be future leaders of the real estate industry in Real Estate Forum's July/August 2013 issue. Lauren is also a published co-author of "Benchmarking the Creative Class in Arlington, Virginia."

Education

Lauren attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University where she double-majored, receiving Bachelors of Science in both Marketing Management and Apparel, Housing & Resource Management.

Contact

301.841.6511 office
202.669.8450 mobile
lberkey@cresa.com

“For over 10 years, Lauren has gone out of her way to represent my company's interests in an aggressive and professional manner. We had several special real estate needs – she grasped the complexities and did an outstanding job of translating them into cost-effective solutions for our business.”

Bruce Lumley, Real Estate Manager
BAE Systems