

Jack Burns

Managing Principal Boston

Professional Experience

Jack is a leader in both the Boston office and within Cresa's Global Portfolio Solutions Group (GPS). He is committed to empowering his clients to make informed decisions, ensuring their real estate strategy supports their overall business objectives. Jack applies a holistic understanding of both the real estate and architecture/engineering/construction industries—built over three decades of experience—to helping Cresa's global clients optimize their portfolios.

Education

Jack earned an Associate degree in Architectural Engineering at Wentworth Institute of Technology and a Bachelor of Arts in Architecture at Boston Architectural College. He continues his education at workshops and programs by CoreNet, BOMA and IFMA.

Affiliations

Jack served on Cresa's Board of Directors from 2006 to 2014, and in 2014 was invited to become a board advisor. He is an active member of the local CoreNet Global New England Chapter, serving as its president for two years and acting as a board member since 2000. In addition to being a recipient of the CoStar Power Broker - Top Broker Award, Jack has consistently been among Cresa's Top Performers since 1996.

Personal Interests

Outside of work, Jack enjoys traveling with his family, golf, hiking, biking and skiing.
