

Jake Dreyer

Senior Advisor, Transaction Management Boston

Professional Experience

As Senior Advisor, Transaction Management with Cresa, Jake facilitates the leasing and purchase of industrial and office space for a Fortune 50 corporate account. He began his career in commercial real estate in 2016 and has focused almost exclusively on the tenant and buyer side with local clients and national franchises. Jake has a superior eye for detail and works tirelessly to secure advantageous terms through thorough site selection and lease negotiations and review processes.

Affiliations

Jake has been a member of the North Texas Commercial Association of Realtors since 2016.

Personal Interests

In his free time, Jake spends time with his wife and four children. He also enjoys playing disc golf, watching English Premier League soccer, reading, and mentoring high school students at his church.
