

Matt Harvey

Principal Boston

Professional Experience

Matt advises corporate and institutional clients in Downtown Boston, advocating for tenants across a diverse array of industries, with a particular focus on private partnerships. He has completed transactions valued in excess of $700M. Matt assists clients in space acquisitions, dispositions, lease buyouts, and build to suit projects.

Education

Matt graduated in 2002 from the College of the Holy Cross with a Bachelor of Science in Economics and has completed coursework in Commercial Real Estate Analysis and Investment at MIT.

Affiliations

Matt is an active member of the Boston Commercial Broker Association (CBA), the Greater Boston Real Estate Board (GBREB), the Pioneer Institute for Public Policy Research and the Catholic Schools Foundation. In 2012, he was awarded the CBA Creative Office Deal of the Year.

Personal Interests

Matt lives in Concord with his wife, daughters, and hound dog Oliver, and enjoys the outdoors in his spare time.

Contact

617.758.6003 office
508.963.8684 mobile
mharvey@cresa.com