

Joe Sciolla

Managing Principal Boston

Professional Experience

Joe has over 40 years of commercial real estate experience in Greater Boston, with more than 25 years spent with Cresa. His business practice focuses on providing exclusive tenant representation and corporate advisory services to local and national companies, from law firms to medical devices companies. Joe has negotiated over 1,000 leases valued at more than $4.8 billion.

Education

Joe graduated from The Lawrenceville School in 1971 and attended Harvard University where he received a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Social Relations in 1975.

Affiliations

Joe is a member of the Boston Commercial Brokers Association (CBA) and has been nominated twice as broker of the year. He is a guest lecturer at Northeastern University School of Entrepreneurship, where his teachings focus on the ethical and moral dilemmas connected with the issues involving conflicts of interest.

Personal Interests

Outside of work, Joe raises and trains western quarter horses for cow and cattle ranch work.
