

Robert Shulman

Managing Principal Boston

Professional Experience

Bob is a founding principal of the Boston office of Cresa who has been involved in corporate and commercial real estate and consulting for more than 30 years. He has consulted for some of the nation's leading corporations and successfully negotiated hundreds of real estate transactions around the nation. As a Managing Principal in the Boston office, Bob is responsible for managing the growing national accounts practice.

Education

Bob graduated from the University of Massachusetts Amherst with a Bachelor of Arts in History in 1973.

Affiliations

Bob is a professional member of CoreNet and a member of the Boston Commercial Brokers Association (CBA). In 2005, he was selected by the Boston Chapter of CoreNet as the "Provider of the Year" and was named by CoreNet National as one its "Superior Educators" in 2007. Bob is affiliated with several charities and nonprofit organizations where he helps with fundraising as well as providing pro-bono services for nonprofits.

Personal Interests

In his spare time, Bob enjoys riding his road bike, seeing his lovely grandchildren and playing pool.

Contact

617.758.6008 office
617.592.6781 mobile
bshulman@cresa.com