

Maschera Usrey

Advisor, Account Management
Boston

Professional Experience

Maschera has served the commercial real estate industry since 2001, having held roles in landlord representation, tenant representation, and transaction management for corporate clients across the country. At Cresa, she focuses on tenant advocacy through the negotiation of industrial leases, dispositions, and acquisitions for a Fortune 50 client account. Working collaboratively with her team, Maschera facilitates seamless coordination between the client and vendor stakeholders to implement real estate strategies that advance the client's long-term objectives.

Personal Interests

Maschera is a foodie with a taste for spicy dishes. She enjoys crosswords, Words with Friends, and terrible puns.
