

Jeffrey Zinke

Vice President, Project Management Boston

Professional Experience

Jeff has been in the New York City real estate and construction industry since 1979, with extensive experience in contractor and owner representative roles. In his role as project manager, he focuses on comprehensive capital programs including new construction, major building renovations and upgrades, and high-end office and special use workspaces.

Education

Jeff received an Associate Degree in Construction Technology in 1977. He then graduated Pratt Institute with a Bachelor of Science in Construction Management in 1980.

Personal Interests

Jeff's passion is aviation, having spent 23 years in the Civil Air Patrol. During that time, he rose to the rank of Major and spent many years performing SAR and Counter Drug Operations.

Contact

516.375.1662 mobile
jzinke@cresa.com