

Ayanna Armstrong-Robinson

Executive Assistant & Front Office Operations Chicago

Professional Experience

Ayanna Armstrong-Robinson brings strong experience supporting C-suite executives and enhancing operations across corporate and nonprofit sectors. At Cresa, she serves as the first point of contact for the Chicago office, managing front office operations and providing daily administrative support to Marcus Cook and the retail team. She is a graduate of the University of Phoenix and lives in Chicago's South Loop. A proud native, Ayanna is a lifelong fan of Chicago sports teams, enjoys traveling—especially by cruise—and spends her free time practicing aerial yoga and biking along the lakefront.

Education

- AA in Human Services Management from the University of Phoenix
