

Gregg Witt

Principal Chicago

Professional Experience

Gregg Witt, a long-time real estate industry veteran, is a Principal at Cresa Chicago. A well-regarded strategist and negotiator, Gregg provides his clients with a process driven approach and deep project understanding which allows him to align business interests with real estate needs. He represents nonprofit organizations, corporations, privately held companies and professional firms. He is a Co-Leader of Cresa's National Nonprofit Practice Group. In addition to his work as a real estate advisor, Gregg has extensive nonprofit experience as a volunteer serving on the boards of numerous professional, social service and educational organizations in Chicago and nationally.

Affiliations

- Chicago Office Leasing Brokers Association, Board of Directors (1987–1996) — Treasurer, Secretary, Vice President, President
- Jewish Child & Family Services, Board of Directors (1994–2005) — Vice President, President
- Jewish Child & Family Services Endowment Foundation, Board of Directors (2002–present), Treasurer
- Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago, Board of Directors (2002–2004)
- Young Men's Jewish Council, Board of Directors (1981–1989) — Secretary, Vice President
- Zeta Beta Tau Foundation, Board of Directors (2004–2015) — Vice President
- Zeta Beta Tau National Housing, Inc., Board of Directors (2012–2022), President (2016–2019)
- American Society of Association Executives — Industry Partner Member Association Forum of Chicagoland — Supply Partner
- Licensed Illinois Real Estate Managing Broker

Education

- Indiana University, Kelly School of Business, Master of Business Administration
- University of Denver, Bachelor of Science, Business Administration

Contact

312.858.6436 office
gwittcresa.com