

Kat Reyes

Vice President, Project Management & Strategic Development Chicago

Professional Experience

Kathrina Reyes is Vice President of Project Management & Strategic Development at Cresa, where she partners with clients to lead complex real estate and development initiatives from strategy through execution. With deep expertise in project management, construction oversight, franchising, and portfolio-level planning, Kat helps organizations translate business objectives into well-executed, scalable solutions.

Known for her ability to manage multidisciplinary teams and drive projects forward with clarity and accountability, Kat brings a people-first, data-driven approach to every engagement. She is particularly passionate about supporting service-oriented brands across retail, restaurant, and wellness environments, ensuring projects are delivered efficiently while protecting brand standards, budgets, and timelines.

Contact

626.825.1109 mobile
kreyes@cresa.com