

George Mack

Senior Advisor
Chicago

Professional Experience

George joined Cresa in 2016 with experience raising debt and equity for corporate users of real estate. George has advised corporate owners and private equity clients in balance sheet restructuring and the acquisition of portfolio companies. Prior to real estate, George was instrumental in the development of a Chicago-based .Com operating in the tech and service industry. As a founder, George served an integral role in raising funds, brand creation and business development.

Affiliations

George stays active as a member of several Chicago community organizations, including the West Loop Community Organization, West Central Chamber of Commerce, and serves as a Junior Board Member of the 100 Club of Chicago.

Education

University of Iowa, B.A. in Economics, Certificate in Entrepreneurial Management
Florence University of the Arts, International Business & Culture Program

Contact

312.376.4136 office
630.935.6392 mobile
gmack@cresa.com