

Michael S. Heaney

Vice President
Chicago

Professional Experience

Michael Heaney joined the Chicago office of Cresa in January 2019 as a key member of Cresa's corporate advisory services group. Bringing 10 years' industry experience, Michael is known for developing strategic goals as it relates to the workplace and delivering solutions that are optimum for both talent acquisition and retention.

Prior to joining Cresa, Michael was a rising leader within JLL's Chicago Tenant Representation practice where he worked with a myriad of clients, large and small, in helping create flexible leasing solutions that positioned companies to adapt to changes in the marketplace.

Before joining JLL in 2013, Michael served as the Property Data Manager at NCREIF managing a network of over 70 Pension Fund and Investment Management client companies. Michael also spearheaded several new initiatives leading to enhanced data analytics, customized reporting metrics and a more satisfiable client experience.
