

Jason Kleiman

Senior Vice President Chicago

Professional Experience

With nearly 20 years of experience in commercial real estate, Jason is focused on providing corporate services to clients with multiple locations on a global scale. He is senior member of the corporate advisory team based in Chicago. His clients have benefited from his market knowledge and seamless ability to coordinate multiple services lines and resources while providing high-quality outcomes on behalf of his global clients. Jason's sole motivation is to help his clients in achieving their corporate goals.

Prior to joining the Cresa team, Jason was a senior executive with both Avison Young and CBRE. Jason began his career outside of the commercial real estate industry and sold electronic equipment to corporate clients throughout the Midwest. He graduated from the Indiana University Kelley School of Business with a degree in Marketing while also completing a secondary degree in French Studies.
