

Matthew Schiffler

Vice President Chicago

Professional Experience

Matt has ten years of commercial real estate experience and completed real estate transactions with a value in excess of $70 million dollars. Since entering the real estate industry in 2009, 100% of Matt's focus has been geared toward consulting occupiers of real estate. He advises his clients on strategic planning, acquisitions of owned or leased properties and portfolio analysis. The concepts and tools Matt makes use of allow him to assist his clients in meeting their financial and operational goals.

Matt's unique approach in understanding his clients' operations and overall business agenda allow him to strategically develop and implement cost effective real estate strategies that enhance the balance sheet. He prides himself on being responsive and detail oriented while aggressively representing his clients, maintaining a respectful relationship with the opposing party.

His specific market of expertise, Suburban Chicagoland, coupled with Cresa's platform and domestic and international resources allow Matt to effectively support his clients across the globe.
