

Jeff Estep

Managing Principal Cresa Consulting Group

Professional Experience

Jeff serves as the Global Director of Cresa's Consulting Group and the Practice Leader for Industrial Services. With over 25 years of experience, Jeff excels at helping clients develop long-term strategies to enhance their operations and support their strategic business objectives. His expertise encompasses a wide range of disciplines including strategic planning and portfolio optimization, location strategy and economic incentives, workplace intelligence, labor analytics, and supply chain optimization.

Jeff is passionate about viewing a client's portfolio through multiple lenses to gain a thorough understanding of their current state. This is done using a variety of methods ranging from personal interviews to comprehensive data collection utilizing industry-leading technology. Once a holistic assessment is achieved, Jeff identifies ways to align operations, labor, technology and workplace. Allocating the right resources from his team – each a recognized expert in their discipline – Jeff leads our Consulting group in creating a strategy that meets the current demands of the portfolio while also allowing for future flexibility.

Jeff and his team deliver real-world, implementable solutions. He likes to be held accountable for his recommendations and is committed to executing his proffered strategies. With considerable experience in Change Management, Jeff has guided clients of all sizes through major portfolio transformations with minimal disruption to their ongoing operations.
