

Dan Zeltser

Senior Vice President Dallas

Professional Experience

With over 15 years of Commercial Real Estate experience, Dan Zeltser is a Senior Vice President at Cresa where he advises occupiers of space and buyers of real estate. An expert in representing the end user and buy-side, Dan takes pride in his ability to provide the most advantageous real estate solutions that align with his clients' organizational goals. Through a creative, disciplined, analytical, and service-oriented approach, Dan has successfully negotiated leases over 1 million square feet of space and successfully negotiated acquisitions of over 300,000 square feet of real estate for his clients.

Clients

- ATW
- Embark
- Fox News
- Fiesta Restaurant Group Inc.
- Holland & Knight
- Turner Construction
- Triten Real Estate Partners
- Wounded Warrior Project

Affiliations

Dan has served on the Boards of the University of Maryland Alumni Association and Texas-Israel Chamber of Commerce. He supports numerous organizations, including Michael J Fox Foundation, Wounded Warrior Project, and the Friends of the Israeli Defense Force.

Education

Dan holds a master's in Real Estate from Georgetown University and a bachelor's degree from the University of Maryland.

Contact

240.535.0486 direct
dzeltser@cresa.com

Expertise

- Transaction Management
- Law Firm
- Healthcare
- Retail
- Technology
- Nonprofit