

David Tevlin

Senior Vice President Dallas

Professional Experience

David brings over 35 years of experience working within corporate real estate to Cresa. He has an extensive career in delivering revenue and profit gains, by generating sales across commercial real estate-related consulting, technology and portfolio services. David has been exposed to every cycle of real estate from varying services, solutions and responsibilities in his career and holds a long-standing relationships with over 150+ Fortune 500 corporations and most top 200 AM law firms nationally. He brings a track-record of winning and driving results, while providing tactical business solutions, attracting clients, seizing new business opportunities and maintaining strategic partnerships.

Affiliations

David is a member of and has served on the boards of numerous professional organizations, including IFMA, Urban Land Institute and CoreNet Global, where he was a Former Chair and voted "Committee Person of the Year."

Education

David is graduate of the American University, where he majored in Real Estate & Urban Development. He also earned his masters in Real Estate Finance from New York University.

Contact

646.286.8010 direct
dtevlin@cresa.com

Expertise

- Transaction Management
- Site Selection & Incentives
- Lease Administration
- Portfolio Solutions
- Law Firm
- Industrial
- Consulting
- Technology