Professional Experience

As an Advisor at Cresa, Jessica Bowman specializes in providing real estate solutions to corporate, financial service, law, life science and healthcare occupiers. She couples her strategic approach and market insight to bring value to clients, while using powerful technology and analytics to drive informed decision-making. She prioritizes forming genuine and mutually trusting relationships to ensure effortless transactions. Day in and day out, she brings the same drive, ambition and excellence to her advisory services, as she does to her other passion as a Dallas Cowboys Cheerleader.

Affiliations

Jessica has always been passionate about performing and dance. She is currently serving her third year as a Dallas Cowboys Cheerleader. Through DCC, she is involved in several community outreach engagements and enjoys supporting organizations like The Salvation Army, Read Across America, My Cause My Boots and the Boys & Girls Clubs of America. She has also enjoyed volunteering at nursing homes, the National Breast Cancer Foundation, Make a Wish Foundation and Ability Connections.

Education

Jessica holds a bachelor's degree in Public Relations and a minor in Business from the University of Texas at Austin.
