

Kristin Durbin

Business Manager
Dallas/Fort Worth

Professional Experience

Kristin has been with Cresa for 10 years and values the occupier rep only platform it provides clients. Her adaptability in the ever-changing commercial real estate industry has given her the opportunity to work as the Dallas Office Business Manager where she manages Operations including Human Resources, Accounting, Compliance, Research and Culture.

Kristin's focus is on making the daily operations of the office run smoothly so that the clients' needs are met in the most efficient way possible. Her specialty and passion include nurturing a workplace culture that's inclusive, open and connected both internally and to the community.

Affiliations

Kristin is an alumni member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority and is an active volunteer at her local animal shelter and enjoys volunteering at new organizations that provide services for children in Dallas and the surrounding suburbs.

Education

Kristin attended Texas A&M in Commerce

Contact

214.306.6491 office
kdurbin@cresa.com