

Scott Yost

Architectural Designer Denver

Professional Experience

Scott is a creative, solution-oriented designer with over 20 years of diverse architectural, interiors and facilitates related experience. Working closely with clients to understand their project's needs, Scott provides innovative, tailored space plans and design solutions. His strong attention to detail extends through construction administration and project close out.

His personal motto: "If you're going to do it, do it right the first time."

Clients

- Lockheed Martin
- Wells Fargo
- Kaiser Permanente
- CoBank
- Denver Department of Human Services

Education

Scott received his bachelor's degree in environmental design from the University of Colorado.

Contact

303.860.0990 ext 21 office
syost@cresa.com