

Caroline Fleischer

Managing Principal
Fort Lauderdale

Professional Experience

Caroline Fleischer is the Managing Principal of Cresa's Fort Lauderdale and Miami offices. Fleischer's sole focus is Occupier Representation and subleasing exclusively in the South Florida office markets. With 25 years of experience in commercial real estate, she is known as one of the top office producers in the region, nominated as a finalist for Broker of the Year through NAIOP in 2012, 2013, 2015, and 2017 because of her hard work and dedication in the local business community.

She is a key strategist and consultant to her clients offering the best, most practical and trend setting ideas for her occupiers. Caroline's continued success earned her an Honoree Award in 2016 for being the Most Influential Business Women in Dade, Broward & Palm Beach Counties by the South Florida Business Journal. She is a devoted wife and mother of two.
