

Michael Bloes

Financial Analyst Downtown Los Angeles

Professional Experience

Michael provides a full range of financial analysis and additional support services to approximately 25 brokers with respect to their real estate transactions. He often works directly with our clients from initial presentation through the completion of their transactions on order to address their unique needs. In addition, he develops “one-off” presentations such as feasibility studies, macromarket surveys and portfolio valuations, as needed.

Typical analysis that he provides for these transactions include:

- Comparative lease analysis
- Buy vs. lease analysis
- Building valuation

In addition, he develops “one-off” presentations such as feasibility studies, macromarket surveys and portfolio valuations, as needed.

Michael has worked as a financial analyst in the Los Angeles commercial real estate industry since 1990. Prior to this, he worked as a CPA for the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen in San Francisco.

Education

Michael received his MBA degree in Accounting from the University of Southern California.
