

Douglas A. Econn

Principal Downtown Los Angeles

Professional Experience

For more than 30 years, Doug Econn has represented an extensive variety of entertainment companies, financial institutions, technology companies, and law firms. He practiced real estate law at the outset of his professional career before becoming entrepreneurial and founding the Los Angeles office of California's first combined real estate brokerage/law firm. Not long thereafter, Doug became a principal at Cresa, and has helped build it into the largest tenant representation firm in the nation.
