

DOUGLAS A. ECONN

Principal

Los Angeles

For more than 30 years, Doug Econn has represented an extensive variety of entertainment companies, financial institutions, technology companies, and law firms. He practiced real estate law at the outset of his professional career before becoming entrepreneurial and founding the Los Angeles office of California's first combined real estate brokerage/law firm. Not long thereafter, Doug became a principal at Cresa, and has helped build it into the largest tenant representation firm in the nation.

AFFILIATIONS

Doug is a member of Bel Air Bay Club and the Chaparral Club.

EDUCATION

Doug received his B.S. degree from University of Southern California, where he was a member of the basketball team, and his J.D. degree from Whittier College School of Law. He was a published member of the Whittier Law Review and was graduated Cum Laude.
