

Guy Eisner

Vice President Downtown Los Angeles

Professional Experience

Guy has spent his extensive business career practicing commercial real estate since the early 1980's. Guy has specialized in the representation of corporate clients and international clients. Clients benefit from his leadership, attention to detail and commitment to providing responsive, results-oriented solutions throughout the entire transaction process. He works to educate his clients, walking them through a process to ensure that they understand all the budgetary ramifications. A veteran negotiator, Mr. Eisner excels in creating the leverage that gives his clients the advantage in lease transactions. His diverse experience combined with qualities of integrity and leadership have enabled him to build a solid base of prominent foreign governments as repeat clients.

Keeping his clients' growth objectives and financial goals at the forefront, from locally owned businesses to the most sophisticated companies, he takes pride in protecting the rights and bottom line of the business owners, nonprofits, and other organizations that he's proud to represent.

“

“When we chose to do the space expansion/extended lease option, you negotiated terms I had not thought possible. It was quite astonishing.”

Rebecca Ver Straten-McSparran, Director
L.A. Film Studios Center
