

James L. Fish

Principal
Downtown Los Angeles

Professional Experience

For over 30 years, Jim has specialized in representing tenants on a local and national basis. He began his real estate career with Travers Cresa and over the course of his career has represented major corporations and professional office space users in transactions totaling over 5 million square feet in all major markets nationwide. Jim personally oversees all aspects of the real estate process including site selection, lease negotiations, financial analysis, legal review, strategic planning, space dispositions, and national portfolios. He is known for his “hands on” commitment to superior client service, creativity, attention to detail, and his strong negotiating skills.

Clients

Jim has represented such firms as ASCAP (The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers), Castle Pines Capital, Directors Guild of America, Fannie Mae, Financial Network Investment Corporation, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, ITOCHU Aviation, KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, Semler Brossy Consulting Group, Stradling Yocca Carlson & Rauth, Ryland Group, U.S. News and World Report, Wells Fargo Capital Finance (and its predecessor companies), Wells Fargo Bank, Westfield Corporation, and Wixen Music Publishing.
