

Arielle Hebein

Senior Advisor
Downtown Los Angeles

Professional Experience

New to the Los Angeles team, Arielle brings over 7 years of commercial real estate experience to support Cresa's multi-market clientele in the Greater Los Angeles region. With a diverse real estate background, Arielle is well-versed in the sales and leasing of a wide range of properties, including Office, Industrial, Retail, Investment, and Residential.

Arielle began her real estate career in her hometown of Calgary Alberta and has expanded her reach to multiple markets, practicing commercial real estate in Vancouver and Kelowna BC, before moving to Los Angeles.

Prior to joining Cresa, Arielle has gained valuable experience working as an Associate at Cushman & Wakefield, where she provided both Landlord and Tenant advisory services. In addition to her real estate acumen, Arielle brings a strong financial background gained from her time at National Bank Financial and has a proven track record as a successful entrepreneur, having owned and operated several small businesses. Her diverse professional background in industries such as oil and gas, luxury fashion, and hospitality enables her to offer highly customized solutions to clients.

Contact

213.430.2455 direct
ahebein@cresa.com