

Jeffrey Mayfield

Principal, Lease Audit Services Downtown Los Angeles

Professional Experience

Jeff has performed lease compliance reviews for over 20 years and has saved his commercial office and retail clients millions of dollars in overcharges.

His prior experience working on behalf of landlords allows him to identify and recover overcharges while protecting the tenant/landlord relationship. In addition, Jeff provides support in negotiating lease language and assisting the brokers in securing new transactions.

Jeff is a certified public accountant with prior real estate audit experience with Deloitte and Kenneth Leventhal & Company. Mr. Mayfield was co-founder of CB Richard Ellis Lease Advisors that provided Lease Administration and Lease Audit services.

Clients

Jeff has performed services for an impressive portfolio of clients including Brinker International (Chili's/Maggiano's), Bristol Myers Squibb, Darden Restaurants (Red Lobster, Olive Garden, Longhorn Steakhouse, Seasons 52, Yard House), Key Bank, Lenscrafters, Lockheed Martin, Loral Corporation, Network Equipment Technology, SAIC, Transamerica, Universal Studios, US West MRG, Washington Mutual, and many other companies.

Education

Jeff received his Bachelor of Business Administration, Accounting from Stephen F. Austin State University.
