

Matthew Miller

Managing Principal
Los Angeles

Professional Experience

Matthew Miller began work at Cresa in 1986 after graduating from UCLA and became a Principal in the firm in 1990. Matthew has worked in tenant representation and corporate services for over 30 years and specializes in representing entertainment and technology companies. As a founding member of Cresa, former Vice Chairman, and a current member of the Board of Directors, his leadership has helped the organization grow to become one of the largest global tenant representation and corporate services providers to local businesses and multi-national corporations.

Clients

- Blizzard Entertainment
- Oracle
- CAA
- Riot Games
- Warner Music Group
- Sony
- Viacom
- Publicis
- Activision

Affiliations

Matthew is the Chapter Chair and Officer for the Young Presidents Organization (YPO), a Board Member for AdoptTogether, and is a member of CoreNetGlobal and Los Angeles Commercial Realty Association (LACRA).

Education

Matthew received his B.A. degree in Mathematics and Economics from University of California, Los Angeles.

Contact

310.943.5100 office
310.502.0044 mobile
mmiller@cresa.com
BRE #00910525

“Matthew was brilliant at leveraging the three options against one another, all the while dealing with stringent forms, guidelines, etc. with our holding company.”

Paul Mareski, President
Team One

