Professional Experience

Idaliah Butler is a driven commercial real estate professional with 3 years of experience specializing exclusively in lease transactions! Based in Las Vegas and licensed in Nevada, Idaliah has represented a diverse range of clients, including an IT company and a specialty dog training and boarding facility—demonstrating her ability to adapt to unique business needs and deliver tailored solutions across industries.

Born and raised in Las Vegas, Idaliah brings a native's insight to the market—keeping a close eye on growth trends and new developments that impact the city's evolving commercial landscape. Her local knowledge gives her clients a distinct advantage when navigating leasing opportunities across the valley.

Idaliah began her career at Berkshire Hathaway, where she was mentored by seasoned professionals and gained hands-on exposure to the fast-paced Las Vegas market. Her commitment to growth led her to take on the dual role of administrative assistant to a commercial broker while continuing to work on her own deals—a testament to her initiative, work ethic, and deepening expertise.

With a growing reputation for resourcefulness and a client-focused approach, Idaliah brings to every transaction a balance of strategic thinking, clear communication, and a passion for helping businesses find the right space to thrive.
