

Kim Sarkisian

Operations Manager
Miami, Florida

Professional Experience

As Operations Manager for the South Florida region, Kim Sarkisian manages the day-to-day operations of Cresa's office and provides critical research and business support for client accounts. Her role includes implementing office policies, the standardization of marketing/office materials, management of broker and event schedules and overseeing support staff. Her exceptional organizational skills, technical eye for detail and her comprehensive understanding of the operational needs of her team give them the competitive edge that make this office successful.

Affiliations

Kim currently sits on the board of Cresa Cares. She is a member of the Special Olympics Florida – Miami-Dade County Executive Development Committee and Chair of the Miami-Dade Silent Auction. She has previously served on boards for the City Theatre and CHARLEE, as well as the Junior League of Miami (JLM) where she was Vice President of Development. Kim is the recipient of JLM's 2014 Rebecca Herndon Bush Award.

Education

Kim earned her bachelor's degree in health and physical education/fitness from Ithaca College. She received her master's degree in cardiac rehabilitation from Springfield College.

Contact

305.697.9793 direct
ksarkisian@cresa.com