

Luis Jara

Advisor
Miami, Florida

Professional Experience

Luis Jara's role as an advisor is oriented towards business development and transaction support for the South Florida office. His post-graduate experience with Concord Development Group, a real estate developer based in Spain, produced the solid foundation of the skills and insight needed to successfully build his network of clients and secure competitive deals for them.

Luis is a graduate of the College of Business at Florida State University where he majored in real estate and finance. The Real Estate Program at Florida State University is currently ranked 5th in the nation among public institutions by U.S. News & World Report.

Luis' passion for success, adaptability to new experiences, competitive nature and personable demeanor make him a formidable advocate for the corporate occupier. His tenacity helps discover the most favorable solution for their real estate needs.

Education

BS Finance, Florida State University
BS Real Estate, Florida State University

Personal Interests

Kitesurfing, playing soccer, boating, Miami Heat, Formula 1 racing

Contact

ljara@cresa.com
305.424.8472 direct
786.393.0022 mobile