Professional Experience

Zachary Talbot is one of the principals of Cresa's South Florida office, whose sole practice is achieving the best results for occupiers. Zack's focus is on occupier representation for both office and industrial clients throughout the tri-county area, and across the country. Zack has consistently been included in Cresa's Presidents Club for production representing over 200 tenants in real estate transactions, totaling more than 1.70 million square feet and $150 million in lease and sale value.
