

Barry Lewen

Principal New York

Professional Experience

Well-regarded industry-wide, Barry Lewen has specialized in occupier representation assignments, commercial property leasing and strategic opportunity development for over 30 years.

Barry has consistently been recognized for his production in the national top 2 percent annually. He is an accomplished, dedicated professional, specializing in orchestrating occupier representation assignments, managing the leasing of commercial properties, and developing strategic opportunities. Barry has built and continues to foster long-term client relationships through trust and creative problem solving strategies. He combines entrepreneurial vision, strong business acumen and excellent negotiation and closing skills to optimize tangible revenue generation.

Most recently, Barry has served as an Executive Managing Director at Coldwell Banker Commercial Advisors and was a Director of Leasing at Monday Properties, managing more than 4 million square feet in the New York region. Barry has also held senior titles at a number of other brokerage firms throughout his career including Grubb & Ellis, Jones Lang LaSalle, Edward S. Gordon Company and Helmsley Spear, Inc.

Clients

- GE Asset Management
- Metropolitan Life Insurance
- Client Guardian Insurance
- New York University
- Kaufman Borgeest & Ryan
- Block, O'Toole & Murphy
- Withum Smith & Brown
- Bessemer Venture Partners
- StormHarbour Securities

Affiliations

Barry is a member of the Real Estate Board of New York and supports the Larchmont/Mamaroneck UJA Federation of New York and WJCS. He also serves on the Palmer Hill H.O.A. Board.

Education

Barry holds a Bachelor's degree from Pennsylvania State University.

Contact

212.758.3131 main
212.687.4575 direct
blewen@cresa.com