

Mark Toubin

Principal New York

Professional Experience

Mark Toubin joined Cresa in 2013. Mark was always focused on developing a career in real estate and brings with him 15 years of experience in various aspects of the real estate industry. As an occupier representative Mark advises a variety of local, national and international firms on evaluating and implementing their strategic real estate plans.

Mark's thorough and extensive knowledge of the New York City real estate market enables him to structure creative deals for clients in the leasing, acquisition and disposition of commercial properties/office space. He demonstrates his expertise in the field through his ability to arrange and assist in sophisticated methods of relocation, occupancy cost reduction strategies and lease negotiations.

Prior to joining Cresa, Leslie worked at DJK where she handled both commercial and residential for her customers. Prior to real estate she worked for a variety of media companies on the sales side. Her last role in ad sales was with Triad Retail Sales where she was responsible for the creation, management and operation of online media programs for leading retail e-commerce website eBay. Leslie has also worked as a sales director for media holding company giant Gannett and held various sales and management positions with QuadrantONE, Time Warner Cable, Specific Media, Aquantive, Viacom and Cox Reps.

Most recently, Leslie worked at CBC Advisors as a Director of brokerage services. At CBC, she partnered with clients to understand their unique business needs and deliver best-in-class, consistent, innovative real estate solutions customized to their specific requirements.
