

Nick Markel

Senior Vice President

New York

Professional Experience

Nick Markel is a Senior Vice President in Cresa's New York office. Prior to joining Cresa, he served as Vice President at Deutsche Bank's Corporate Services Real Estate Department, reporting to the Global Head of Real Estate. Before that, he worked at Cushman & Wakefield, where he was promoted three times within five years, achieving the title of Director.

Among Nick's many notable deals have been the relocation of the headquarters of Rockefeller Financial into a 65,000 square-foot space at 630 Fifth Avenue; the relocation of UGG Australia (Deckers) to a 15,000 squarefoot office and showroom space at 1325 Avenue of the Americas; the $140,000,000 sale of One Broadway; and the sale of a 40,000 square-foot commercial condominium at 633 Third Avenue on behalf of Mount Sinai Health Systems.

Clients

- Ballon Stoll Bader & Nadler, P.C.
- Belgian American Chamber of Commerce
- Beyond Identity
- Flanders House
- Loan Syndication Trade Association
- Meltzer Lippe
- Robertson Stephens Wealth Management
- Rockefeller Financial
- Tradewind Finance
- Trustpilot
- UGG Australia (Deckers)

Affiliations

Nick is a member of the Real Estate Board of New York.

Education

Nick holds a bachelor's degree in Business from Franklin & Marshall College.

Contact

212.758.3131 main
212.687.4501 direct
nmarkel@cresa.com