

Simeon Weber

Vice President
New York

Professional Experience

Simeon Weber has joined Cresa as a Vice President. As a specialist in commercial tenant representation in New York City for more than three decades, Mr. Weber has arranged leases for well over 1 million square feet.

Among his most recent transactions are the 76,000-square-foot lease for Necessary Objects; 51,000-square-foot lease for OuterStuff; 26,000-square-foot lease for CCG Metimedia; and 23,200-square-foot lease for New York-based hedge fund, Platinum Partners.

Prior to joining Cresa, Mr. Weber was a senior director at Cushman & Wakefield, where he served exclusively as a tenant representative. His extensive background in commercial real estate transactions also includes senior positions at Norman Bobrow & Co., where he was a four-time “Broker of the Year” honoree, and Helmsley-Spear.

Simeon is a graduate of Yeshiva University and is fluent in three languages.
