

Téa Poljak

Advisor
Orange County

Professional Experience

Téa recently joined Cresa as an Advisor, specializing in tenant representation throughout the Orange County area. With deep market knowledge, exceptional attention to detail, and strong communication skills, Téa is committed to helping her clients achieve their real estate goals.

Before entering real estate, Téa was a standout athlete. She played water polo at the University of Southern California (USC), where she was an NCAA Champion in 2021 and earned ACWPC All-Academic honors. After her collegiate career, Téa took her talents abroad, competing professionally in Athens, Greece, for Panionios Club. There, she helped her team secure a top-five finish in the Greek League and earned her team a spot in the European Championship.

Drawing from her athletic background, Téa brings a unique perspective to her work in real estate. Her competitive drive, ability to work under pressure, and strong interpersonal skills make her a trusted advisor who consistently delivers results for her clients.

Education

Téa earned her Bachelor's Degree in Communications from the University of Southern California.

Volunteer Work

On a volunteer basis, Téa helps train police and military dogs.
