

Casey Williams

Senior Advisor
Orange County

Professional Experience

Casey focuses on helping businesses find their best space in the Orange County area.

Born and raised in Southern California, he is intimately familiar with the market dynamics between the LA, OC, and Inland Empire markets. Ultimately, Casey excels in providing outstanding second mile service, overseeing the entire real estate transaction life cycle, and addressing his clients' short- and long-term needs.

Prior to Cresa, he spent a decade on the Landlord side of the table. Like prosecutor turned defense attorney, he now represents the businesses for their best possible outcome. He is an integral player capturing and servicing a larger market share in Orange County.

Education

Casey earned his MBA from Azusa Pacific University, and his Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration with an emphasis in Finance & Real Estate from APU.

Personal Interest

Casey is a volunteer search and rescue technician with the Mountain Rescue Association through the Orange County Sheriff's Department.
