

Craig Castor

Principal Orlando

Professional Experience

Craig Castor is native of Orlando and a veteran business professional with over 40 years of combined experience in construction, insurance and risk management industries and presently 15 years in commercial real estate. Craig specializes in full-service, occupier representation, developing real estate strategies for his clients; including, efficient space use, portfolio management, site selection, negotiating leases, subleases, relocations and space consolidations. Craig's sole focus is developing real estate solutions that will increase profitability and create value for his clients.

Clients

- Alorica- Call Centers
- LabCorp
- Clancy & Theys Construction
- AmerisourceBergen
- Visit Orlando
- FCCI Insurance Group
- Enterprise Florida (Gov't)
- KemPharm
- Progressive Insurance

Affiliations

Craig serves on the Boards of numerous charitable organizations, including Children's Home Society of Florida, Fellowship of Christian Athletes of Central Florida, and C12 CEO Group Central Florida Chapter. He is a corporate sponsor of GrowFL in Central Florida.

Education

After working his way through college, Craig received his Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing with a minor in Economics from Florida State University in 1982. He also earned an Associate in Risk Management (ARM) designation (3-year process) during his prior 8-year career in commercial insurance and corporate risk management.

Contact

407.409.8690 office
407.493.6366 mobile
ccastor@cresa.com