

John Gay

Managing Principal Orlando

Professional Experience

Since 1989, John Gay has been pursuing his passion of representing businesses in their real estate activities. One of Orlando's top tenant representatives, John has a long track record of satisfied clients. He has advised multinational companies, regional businesses, & small local practices. Whether for large build-to-suit developments or for small short-term renewals, no project is unimportant. For this reason, John continues to maintain long term relationships with his clients.
