

Steve Wightman

Senior Vice President
Orlando

Professional Experience

For over 30 years Steve has specialized in tenant advisory services for local, regional & national clients. His clients benefit from his exclusive focus on tenants; as he does not have conflicts of interest by representing developers or landlords. Steve takes a consultative approach to fully understand his client's business before making any recommendations. With Cresa's broad range of integrated, tenant focused services at his disposal, he can handle any type of assignment, large or small.
