

Mark Stott

Director, Tenant Advisory
Perth, Western Australia

Professional Experience

Mark is a shareholder and Director of LPC Cresa's Perth office. He has over 20 years experience in the property industry in both Australia and the United Kingdom. His previous roles in valuation and asset management add to his credibility as an astute and effective occupier advisor.

Since 2007, Mark has focused on occupier representation, advising corporate and government bodies on a wide range of commercial property issues. He leverages his experience and local market insight to assist clients with lease negotiations, site acquisitions, transaction management, lease restructuring, purchase and lease analyses and premises consolidation/disposals. He works diligently to ensure occupiers find the appropriate real estate solutions that support their short- and long-term business objectives.
